Gentlemen:

We would like a copy of your catalog for our numismatic library and may bid if there is something in our library we do not have. We do not pay for sale catalogs as a general principle and virtually all catalog producers send their catalogs to us. We would very much like to have yours.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman

Dear Ken + Myron —

Having served on the Council of A.N.S. with great dignity for a score of years and being aware of the need to have humor enter numismatic I am shocked at your irreverence for the cultivation dinner you attended. I am so astounded that I let my wife read your diatribe and she wrote you the enclosed note. Please shock us more often. We are really trying to do everything numismatics deserves in the way of cultural support, scholarly administration and human interest and encouragement. We hope increased support will come from many of you.

As you may know we have a nice American numismatic library which you are welcome to use at any time. We always want to add to it any editions of any items we don't have. We hope MoneyTree can be of help.

Thank you for lightening our life.

Sincerely

Eric P. Newman

Dear Ken,

I've been a Nurse for 47 years and "Out on a Limb" has made me laugh out loud for the first time about anything remotely related to all that stuff in the basement and attic. Your evening at the Norwich scene would make a great operetta.

Don't count on coming to our house, We'll meet at Denny's -

Keep up the fun. It's so refreshing.

Dear friends:

I just returned from South America to find your lot #413A in my mail. I am a Heath nut and for many years have been trying to write an opus on the matter. It is a master mystery to untangle the editions because they were put together in a windstorm by the uneducated in the dark. Text often refers to illustrations which are not there and illustrations are misnumbered, renembered and substituted without concern. Yet almost 100,000 were sold to the public who beat them up before numismatists tore them up.

Your item is missing the $100 First Nat of Boston counterfeit and is missing Plate 16 (Orleans Bank counterfeit) as I compared it with other second edition examples. Yet it has the label of the Pennsylvania RR on the inside and the Eastman College on the Outside. Your willingness to let me send you another Heath is appreciated but instead of doing that I am going to send something you can make a fuss about in your next sale unless you keep it for yourself.

It is an Ames Almanack of 1762, Boston which contains four numismatic items of great interest: the value of foreign coins circulating in America in money of account of Mass, New England and North Carolina (lawful), N.Y. and Phila; the value of Gold + Silver in Old Tenor Mass money; Conversion of Old Tenor to Lawful Money and a discussion of other exchange problems. I happened to pick up a duplicate of this. In my opinion it is a very unusual item and could have a substantial value. Perhaps you have never heard of this type of item. If you don't like it send it back.

Let me know about any Heath's you pick up whether complete or able to be cannibalized. Come see my library any time or write me about numismatic books if you need data.

Keep up your enthusiasm and sense of humor.

Cordially,

THE MONEY TREE

Dear Eric,

Thank you for the Ames Almanack. While it was a fascinating piece, it is a bit too esoteric for us. If possible, we would prefer a Heath instead as we have a rather special customer for one.

I must thank you for the letter. The information you gave us about the Heath's was most enlightening. Although Heath's are a favorite of ours, there are so many differences, even among the relative few with which we are familiar, that your information was revelatory. Would you mind if we share this information with our readers? Of course, we will give you full credit.

Also, we eagerly await your "opus" on Heaths. Our card file contains only the most rudimentary, and in some cases, contradictory information.

Finally, I was most taken with your phrase, "put together in a windstorm by the uneducated in the dark". What a great expression! May we respectfully steal this marvelous description for use in our catalogues?

Eric, thank you so much for your correspondence. We understand how precious time is, and we are most appreciative that you share some of it with us. Your offer to visit your library is most gracious. We look forward to being able to take advantage of it.

With kind regards,

Ken

Dear Messrs. Xenos and Lowe:

Since you are unhappy with the 1762 rarity which I sent you, I am now sending you under separate cover a Heath Third Edition, copyright 1870, with lovely plates and which I hope will be satisfactory to you. It has defects just as the one I obtained from you. While the cover may be worn, the text and plate content is in beautiful condition.

In my effort to do something extra for you, I am sending you also under separate cover, with my compliments, two copies of Early Paper Money of America. I hope I have done my part this round.

Sincerely,

numismatics in this country. The contents of the text volume contain biographical information and all pertinent documents about each medal.

There is an engraving of extraordinary quality for both the obverse and the reverse of each of the 86 medals described in the text.The engravings have such aesthetic medal that plate volumes are disbound, having the engravings mounted, framed, and sold to collectors of engravings and fine art. This explains why often only the text volume appears.

Thus this is an important copy of an classic work that has some significant problems, but is still quite usable.

787. Moore, Richard D. in collaboration with Cyril H. Hawley. THE HIGLEY COPPERS 1737-1739. In THE CONNECTICUT HISTORICAL SOCIETY BULLETIN, Volume 20, Number 3. July 1955. 12mo, glossy pictorial and printed CaC. Pages 69 to 73. Ills. The back cover is heavily spotted, otherwise VF. (35.00)

This monograph was later reprinted in AUCTORI CONNEC AND OTHER EMISSIONS, offered below.

788. Moore, Richard D, Cyril H. Hawley, Wilfred Lennon, and Howard E Davis. AUCTORI CONNEC AND OTHER EMISSIONS. 1959. Hartford Numismatic Society. 12mo, printed blue CaC with cloth tape at the spine, as issued. 31 pp. 5 pls. VF. (75.00)

Copy number 195 of only 200 printed. This is an assemblage of short monographs: Richard Moore, "The Higley Coppers 1737-1739"; Cyril Hawley, "Auctori Connec and the Fugios"; Richard Moore, "Connecticut's First Bills of Credit"; Wilfred Lennon, "The Hartford Bank"; Howard Davis, "The Waterbury Tokens". Scarce and important.

789. Noe, Sydney P. THE NEW ENGLAND AND WILLOW TREE COINAGES OF MASSACHUSETTS. 1943. NNM-102. 16mo, tan CaC. 55 pp. 16 fine double-page plates with printed tissue guards. Some bending at the bottom corners, otherwise Fine or better. (35.00)

C-S 12213*. This was inspired by a 1942 exhibit at the museum of the ANS which included 500 specimens of Massachusetts coinage. This superb reference with important historical and numismatic text is one of the most highly sought of all ANS monographs. Scarce.

790. Noe, Sydney P. THE OAK TREE COINAGE OF MASSACHUSETTS. 1947. NNM-110. 23 pp. 10 fine pls. Some bending at the bottom corners, otherwise Fine or better. (20.00)

C-S 12214*. The standard reference gives historical information, fully cataloguing with plates 34 coins from the T. J. Clarke collection on loan to the ANS.

791. Noe, Sydney P. THE PINE TREE COINAGE OF MASSACHUSETTS. NNM-125. 1952. 48 pp. 11 plates. Some bending at the bottom corners, otherwise Fine or better. (25.00)

C-S 12216*. In addition to text, this catalogues and plates 36 coins and 26 fabrications. Important. Scarce and in demand.

792. Noe, Sydney. ALL THREE (3) OF THE PRECEDING ANS MONOGRAPHS ON MASSACHUSETTS SILVER COLONIAL COINAGE. Each has some bending at the bottom corners, otherwise each is Fine or better. (80.00)

THE SUCCESSFUL BID FOR THIS LOT MUST EXCEED THE TOTAL OF THE BIDS FOR THE PRECEDING THREE LOTS.

THE DELUXE EDITION OF RAYMOND'S 1931 PRIVATE GOLD COINS

793. Raymond, Wayte. PRIVATE GOLD COINS STRUCK IN THE UNITED STATES 1830-1861. A Complete Illustrated List of the Various Coins Issued by Private Assayers in Georgia, Carolina, Colorado, Utah, Oregon, and California. 1931. 8vo, flexible full brown morocco, gilt. 32 pp. Ills. Bent at the lower corner. The covers are Fine or better. The contents are VF. (75.00)

THE DELUXE EDITION. Inscribed in pencil on the front endpaper, "given to Club by C.J. Edgar." This was an early entry in what would turn out to be as series of monographs by Raymond on various American numismatic topics.

794. Sheldon, William H. EARLY AMERICAN CENTS 1793-1814. An Exercise in Descriptive Classification with Tables of Rarity and Value, With the Collaboration of H.K. Downing and M.H. Sheldon [the author's typewriter]. 1949. 8vo, tan and brown cloth, gilt. 331 pp. 51 fine pls. VF. (100.00)

C-S 12340. 2500 copies of this predecessor to PENNY WHIMSY were printed. Sheldon's attempt to determine a mathematical relationship between grade and price has been so altered that a small coterie of numismatists are having a fund raiser to buy a coffin rotator for the good professor so that he can turn over in his grave.

Extremely nice copies of this classic work (of which this is one) have become quite elusive. This is truly one of the significant works in all of American numismatics.

795. Storer, Malcolm. NUMISMATICS OF MASSACHUSETTS. 1923. Small 4to, original black cloth and gray boards. xi, 318 pp. Frontis. 38 pls. The covers are Fine. The contents are better than Fine. (50.00)

C-S 15092. A descriptive cataloguing of over 200 medals and storecards in the collection of the Massachusetts Historical Society. Organized alphabetically by town or city, and within alphabetically or chronologically.
